Position Title: Global Graduate Program

---

Opportunity Type: Full-time position

Opportunity Location: Germany, France, UK, Americas, Singapore

Program Summary:

A 24-month Global Graduate Program will be launched in the second half of 2012. University graduates will be prepared for a successful role in either Underwriting/Claims, as Sales Analysts, in Finance or IT.

The Global Graduate Program will be carried out in Germany, France, the UK, the Americas and Singapore and will involve the following modules:

- > Global induction week in Munich/Germany to jointly start the program and get to know peers while gaining first insights into our company and business and receiving general job-specific training
- > On-the-job development in the respective home country and function, tailored to business needs to receive relevant expertise with regard to the future role
- > Rotation to additional broader understanding of the insurance business
- > International business trip to obtain cultural experience and understand the uniqueness of the AGCS business in different markets
- > Functional trainings to acquire relevant professional qualifications
- > Mentoring to have a single point of contact throughout the program
- > Networking to build lasting business relationships for the future.

The program explicitly targets university graduates in the global marketplace which will be recruited right after completion of their studies to build our talent pool and fill the functional pipeline for the future, hence perfectly complements the already existing career development program portfolio at AGCS.

We are happy to receive your application!
