Company Overview:

Amerisure is a leading "A" rated regional property and casualty insurance company that provides insurance for workers' compensation, contractor and manufacturer programs, commercial property, and coverage enhancements for manufacturing, contracting, and commercial enterprises.

Since 1912 Amerisure has built its success on its partner relationships with its policyholders, agencies, and employees.

Job Summary:

To support our strategic growth, we are expanding our marketing/underwriting force and are seeking exceptionally talented individuals interested in a rewarding, exciting career opportunity.

Our Developmental Marketing Underwriting (DMU) Training Program is a comprehensive program that provides the technical and marketing training needed to advance in Amerisure's performance culture. Participants will develop skills to advance to an integral role at Amerisure by participating in classroom training, self-study and mentoring with Amerisure's top Marketing Underwriters. The program lasts approximately one year. Upon successful completion of the program, DMU's are promoted to Marketing Underwriter and become responsible for an overall book of business in an assigned territory with responsibilities that include, but are not limited to: production, profitability, agency management and service coordination.

If this sounds like the career opportunity you can't afford to pass by, please submit your credentials in confidence for immediate consideration.
