

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PROFESSIONAL SURPLUS LINES OFFICES (NAPSLO)

SUMMER INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

www.napslo.org

The NAPSLO Internship Program annually awards paid summer internships to college students interested in an insurance career. Interns spend nine weeks with NAPSLO member firms learning all aspects of the surplus lines insurance industry.

Interns receive a competitive salary from their host firms and NAPSLO provides a stipend, covers travel, housing and various other related expenses. Interns also compete for an additional internship in London that takes place the following summer.

Internship candidates are college juniors or seniors. The internship is open to Insurance, Risk Management and Actuarial Science majors only.

Applications for the 2012 Summer Internship Program are currently being accepted. Students can apply on-line or download the application to send to NAPSLO. The deadline to submit completed application, current resume, college transcript, and letters of recommendation is December 1.

All information may be found at the NAPSLO site at <http://www.napslo.org/imispublic/AM/Template.cfm?Section=Internship>