Position Title: Underwriting Trainee

Opportunity Location: Various locations within the United States, with initial training in Rock Island, IL for 6-9 months

Start Date: 6/7/2010

Position Description:

The position of underwriting trainee can lead to a career as a commercial lines underwriter. Training begins in the Rock Island, IL home office. There our trainees learn basic underwriting principles and gain customer knowledge while working with our specialized niche market programs. Trainees gain insight into the full cycle of commercial lines underwriting through interaction with our knowledgeable professionals from underwriting, premium audit, claims and risk control. Upon completion of the initial training in Rock Island, which normally lasts 6-9 months, training continues in one of 16 branch office locations, with progression to the position of underwriter upon successful completion of training.
