

Thomas J. Mullins

Phone: (309) 287-6132

Email: tjmulli@ilstu.edu

Education:

Bachelor of Science, Insurance, Illinois State University (May 2010)

Associates Degree, Heartland Community College (May 2008) – GPA 3.22

Personal Skills/Strengths:

- Outstanding customer service skills
- Leadership by example in team environments
- Goal oriented
- Ethically minded
- Personable and positive by nature

Work History:

Swinger's Bar and Grille, Waiter, June 2006 - present

- Gaining and strengthening retail sales and service experience as a waiter
- Demonstrating determination by working full-time to reach my goal of entirely supporting my educational endeavors

Additional Honors, Awards, and Experiences:

Gamma Iota Sigma, member, Illinois State University, September 2008 - present

- Professional and ethical development for pursuit of a career in the insurance industry
- Attended the Annual Troy University Surplus Lines Symposium (2008)
- Attended the Risk and Employee Benefits Exposition – REBEX (2008)

Virtual Team Group Leader in semester-long Marketing Simulation game (2008)

- Strengthened group leadership and membership skills as part of a virtual team involved in making five independent marketing decisions based on Income Statement results for a competitive grade

Varsity Men's Soccer, member, Heartland Community College, June 2007 – 2008

- Encouraged cooperation and commitment to teammates, as well as promoted the tenacity to win

Interests:

Rescue scuba diving (certified), soccer, tennis and renaissance history